

If you want to increase satisfaction, engagement and performance to power business success, we can help.

Targeted engagement plans – we can identify your drivers of satisfaction – and dissatisfaction – and develop and deliver meaningful and bespoke engagement plans.

Internal and external communications – we can develop and deliver inspiring and relevant internal and external communications activities. Whether you are looking to produce an employee newsletter or develop a proactive PR campaign, we can help.

Workplace wellbeing – we can develop and embed targeted wellbeing plans, based on an understanding of your business and our experience of workplace wellbeing.

Facilitation – away days, meetings, focus groups, workshopswhatever event you are looking to hold, we can help you to get excellent engagement and results through our thoughtful and inclusive facilitation.

Values and organisational development – we can help you to establish new values and develop your existing values into value-based behaviours and standards which provide a framework for how you operate.

Management development – we can work with you to develop management competencies and produce and deliver an associated programme of management development workshops.

Coaching – we can offer 121 coaching to help individuals find their own solutions.

Writing – we have vast experience of writing and can write copy on any subject, for any audience.

If you want to find out more, please call Michelle on 07834 578872, email michelle@engaging-people.co.uk,
tweet us @engagepeopleco
or visit us here <http://engaging-people.co.uk/contact-us/>

the engaging
people
company